School Literacy Night Under the Stars

As the Election Day is fast approaching, every day we are bombarded with many campaign advertisements. However, as I watch those commercials, I have many concerns.

First of all, I wonder how much it costs to win a seat in Congress?

This is an old piece of information I found on www.msnbc.com:

“According to Maplight, a non-profit, non-partisan research organization that tracks money in politics, House candidates who won in 2012 raked in an average of $1,689,580 in campaign contributions.”

Those numbers climb substantially if you’re running for Senate. Candidates who won a seat in Congress’ upper chamber each raised an average of $10,476,451.”

And these amounts of money only increase, not decrease, every year.

Second, how do those candidates utilize so much money they have raised to run the campaign?

Do they use their money to tell people what they have done and what they will do?

As we watch those commercials, we see many of them are running negative campaigns. They attack their opponents by calling them either liars and have become corrupt. None of us have the ability to verify if any of those accusations are real or false.

I am not sure about you, but I am really sick and tired of watching those commercials. Those candidates are trying to win the elections not by showing their good qualities and promoting good policies, but by putting their opponents down.

Sadly, that is how this world functions when it comes to politics. As a result, we have an even more divided society than ever.

Is that what we, as Christians, will do if running for any political offices?

In the Eighth Commandment God tells us that “You shall not give false testimony against your neighbor.”

Luther explains this in his Small Catechism:

We should fear and love God so that we do not tell lies about our neighbor, betray him, slander him, or hurt his reputation, but defend him, speak well of him, and explain everything in the kindest way.

Yes, you and I may not be running for an office, but in our lives, we do from time to time using negative campaign concept to talk about other people. What is that? That is called “Gossip.”

When we have conversation with other people, we like to talk about some of the bad things others have done. Some might be true; some you have heard from others and you don’t know if they are true or not. As a result, we act like the rest of the world. Instead of building each other up, we tear each other down. We make ourselves feel good by stepping over others.

Sadly, that is happening a lot in the family of God.

Therefore, let us contemplate on the Word of God in Ephesians 4:29–32

“Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up, as fits the occasion, that it may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.” (ESV)

Siouxland Hispanic Ministry—Rev. Paul Flo

Prayer Requests • That our new season of English and Citizenship classes goes well! We'll be starting very soon! • That our new catechism program "Faith, Food, and Fun" would start out strong. • Keep your prayers going for Carmen! She's got a few months of chemo left and we are praying for a cancer-free future! Mark the Calendar, our quarterly Siouxland Hispanic Ministry meeting will be: Tuesday, December 1 at 6:30 pm. Come and join us! The very courageous Pastor Mike Awe was willing to take on whatever hairdo our VBS kids wanted if the congregation raised $5000 or more for our Hispanic Mission. You can see that the goal was met! Thanks for your sacrifice, Mike! And thanks to Hope Lutheran for supporting our Hispanic ministry!

Lutheran Bible Translators—Rev. Tim and Lisa Beckendorf

Yet another short update from us this month as there is still not much happening on which to report. Work is continuing, though somewhat slowly. Moses, one of the translators, has decided to resign/retire; he has significant health and eyes issues which really make it difficult for him to do this kind of work. He has been with Tim since the beginning, so it is hard to have him leave. However Splash and Moronga are continuing the work and the team recently finished checking the passion story in John and are almost finished checking the same in Luke. We offer thanksgiving for the creation of the advisory committee, that we have continued to be able to get supplies in spite of Covid19 restrictions, for good health and safety. We would like to request prayers for *the advisory committee, that they will be a great interface between the project, the communities, and the Bible Society, Please pray for Lisa as we face this season of burning, and please pray that Botswana will be spared the severity of the Coronavirus that South Africa is experiencing.

LCMS Latvia Ministry—Rev. Charles & Connie Cortright

Pray for Charles and Connie as they serve in Riga. Ask God to strengthen both of them as they work in Latvia and learn the culture. Ask God to use them daily in the work of helping Lutheran pastors in Eurasia to preach Christ and Him crucified. Pray, too, for the LCMS personnel serving in the region with them that they continue to receive God's grace through the Word and Sacrament ministry Charles shares with them. Ask God to keep Charles and Connie safe as they travel. Pray for the hearts of people here in the United States who will partner with the Cortrights in prayer and financial support so they can participate in this Kingdom work with them. Let us give thanks that Charles and Connie are serving in this part of God's world.

LCMS Kenya Ministry—Rev. Shauen & Krista Trump

Prayer Requests: For the Trump boys as they learn from home - and especially for patience for Krista as she helps with their programming from school. For wisdom, discernment, and patience for Shauen and Krista in their work as spouses, parents, and missionaries. For the missionaries, projects, and relationships Shauen oversees for the church. For the responses and restrictions of the governments in Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, and Ethiopia as they react to COVID-19. For Shauen as he enters the Comprehensive Exam phase of his PhD program.

Praise Reports: For LCMS International Mission permitting us to remain on-station in Kenya during the COVID-19 outbreak. That our family is together. For Shauen's unexpected time at home during what is usually a busy travel season. For healthy, safe, and thriving children. For the technology that allows our missionary team to gather for worship, fellowship, conversation, and deliberation about the doors God is opening in the midst of the pandemic.

What Is Your Priority?

Faith empowers us to give generously. What we do with the money in our checkbooks is a reflection of the condition of our hearts. Our willingness to give is an indicator of our priorities in our lives. Tithing (giving 10 percent) is a statement of faith. If our hearts are filled with the love of Christ, His love will be visible in what we do and give. As Christians today, we are motivated for stewardship by the gift of God's grace through His Son. Our giving can have no greater foundation than the Gospel of forgiveness.

Prayer: Dear Lord, You entrust me with financial treasures so I can use them not only to provide for my own needs but to use them to serve those who are in need. Grant me faith to share willingly, cheerfully, and generously the gifts You've entrusted to me with others. In Christ's name I pray. Amen.

Blessings on your stewardship journey!
